Volunteer role description

Role title:	Engagement Volunteer – Attenborough Nature Reserve
Team/Group:	Engagement Team
Your volunteer leader:	Sue Millichap, Engagement Officer
Volunteering base:	Attenborough Nature Centre, Barton Lane, Attenborough, Nottingham, NG9 6DY

Why we need this role

Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust is committed to engaging people with nature. We deliver a huge variety of opportunities for people to learn about the natural world. We need volunteers to support the engagement team in delivering a fun and exciting programme of events. We deliver exciting, curriculum-linked education sessions for nurseries, schools, colleges and universities. NWT also creates opportunities for families, running Wild Tots, Wild Kids, Holiday Clubs, Drop-in events as well as large scale events accommodating up to 200 people, such as a 'Science Festival', 'Prehistoric Attenborough' and 'Attenborough Live'. The team provides activities all year round including: pond dipping, bird watching, fire lighting, minibeasting, natural crafts, trails, surveying & ecology and lots more! Being a charity, NWT absolutely relies on its volunteers to operate. We need enthusiastic people to assist with the delivery of our events.

What this role involves

As an Engagement Volunteer you will be working as part of a fantastic team of diverse ages and backgrounds who come together to make a difference for wildlife and people's appreciation of it.

You may help with resource preparation, moving equipment around the reserve and helping to clear away following sessions. You could also work with participants directly through knowledge sharing, support during activities, guiding groups to different locations and taking part in activities and demonstrations. In addition, there will be the opportunity to input into session planning.

We request each volunteer to dress for the weather; wearing layers is the best way to prepare for the good old British climate.

Experience and skills needed

Enjoys engaging with children, young people and the wider community.

Approachable and patient, with a friendly personality.

Ability to work as part of a team.

Interested in wildlife and conservation.
